

AIRCRAFT SPRUCE WEST CORONA, CALIFORNIA

Aircraft Spruce West was located in a 27,000 split level packing house in downtown Fullerton, CA. from 1973 until 1997. Built in 1924 by the Union Pacific Railroad, the Building was known as the Elephant Packing House named after the original lease holder operating a citrus packing operation there. In 1996, Aircraft Spruce acquired a 5-acre parcel near the airport in Corona, CA. Construction for the new home of Aircraft Spruce West began in March 1997. In September of 1997, the new 62,000 sq. ft. facility was completed and operations were moved from Fullerton to Corona. The Corona facility features 10,000 sq.ft. of office space, a large, automated warehouse, separate workshops for preparation of metal and wood orders, and a huge retail store for fly-in and drive-in customers. Visitors are always welcome at Aircraft Spruce West.
